

GREAT HAMMERHEAD SHARK

Sphyrnas mokarran

- Great hammerhead sharks are identifiable by their hammer-shaped heads that are covered with senses that help them detect prey that may be hidden in the sand
- Great hammerheads can be found swimming in tropical and warm temperate waters worldwide

FUN FACT: Great hammerheads were categorized as Critically Endangered with Extinction mostly due to overfishing.

www.AmericanSharkConservancy.org