

- Lemon sharks are easily identified by their yellowish coloration and their first and second dorsal fins are of similar size
- Lemon sharks have litter sizes between 7 - 18 pups
- Young lemon sharks are often found in sea grass flats and mangroves where they can avoid getting eaten by bigger sharks

FUN FACT: Lemon sharks moms return to the same spot where they were born to give birth to their own babies!

www.AmericanSharkConservancy.org